Forecast for today: Snow, clearing, colder.

BRIEF AND BREEZY.

A little stranger arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wootley, Jr., yesterday morning. It was a fine boy.

The game for the cruddy golf and shamus, the work of Mrs. Besse Taylor, has been postponed until the 15th of next month.

At 5 a. m. yesterday, the thermometer registered 25, at noon 22, and at 6 p. m. 18. The mercury was 20 at 10 p. m. and 19 at midnight.

Two cents (10) per copy will be paid for copies of the Semi-weekly Herald dated of September 1894, sent to the office of the Herald.

Yesterday's clearings were $20.12, as compared with $20.12 for the same day of last year. The clearings for the week were $1,041.00, as compared with $1,041.00 for the same week of 1893.

The snowman yesterday made the sleighing good last night, and the merry jingle of the bells was heard on the streets. The present conditions will continue.

The county clerk yesterday issued marriage licenses to Samuel Jacobson, age 24, and Lillian Levy, age 18, both of Salt Lake city, and to Frank Decker, 21, of Denver, Colo., and Clara Anderson, age 18, of Salt Lake city.

Monday, at 12 o'clock noon, the Salt Lake Hot Springs Sanatorium company will give the newsworthy possession of the sanatorium, and each will be allowed to invite a boy friend. The young fellows are looking forward to a gay time.

A meeting of the council of the combined Democratic clubs will be held on Monday evening at the office of Judge Merritt. The subject of the meeting is the celebration of Jackson Day, January 7.

Yesterday's business in the United States Land office was confined to the following: George M. Leonard, of Fernon, Emery county, home and emigration of the southwest quarter of section 34, township 19 south, range 2 east, 2nd and 3rd sections, 2nd township 19 south, range 2 east.

The installation of the officers of Camp No. 1, Modern Woodmen of the World, will take place at the hall of the camp in the Glendale building, on Tuesday evening next, and will be public. A large crowd is expected to be in attendance, and a good time is anticipated. This order is growing rapidly in this city and is expected to be a grand success.

H. R. Drake, the Mercer miner, who attempted suicide Wednesday night at the sanatorium by shooting himself, is alive and improving. He will be made to extract the flattened bullet in a few days, and when the operation is successfully performed there will be nothing unfavorable to his speedy and permanent recovery.

Patrick Quinn, nephew of the late Wm. T. Quinn, who died in this city on Christmas Day, has arrived in the city from Chicago, and has made arrangements for the funeral which will take place Sunday at St. Mary's cathedral, at 2 o'clock. Carriages will leave No. 15 East First street at 1:30 p. m. Flowers should be left with the Collins Undertaking company not later than 1:30 p. m. All friends of the deceased are invited to attend the funeral.

The county officers-elect are feeling very much aggrieved over the failure of the committee having the opening celebration in charge to send them a formal invitation to attend the ceremonies. There is some talk of a retaliatory move on the part of the committee, and it is expected that a banquet and ball on New Year's eve, at which the outgoing officers will be given the chance to "show up" the incoming ones, will be held in the office of Mr. Whitmore, county attorney-elect, yesterday afternoon, to consider the matter. Something definite will doubtless be issued today.

Abstracts furnished, titles insured at 5 per cent paid on deposits by Utah Title Insurance and Trust company, 100 Main street.

To lend at 6 to 8 per cent. on improved real estate, in amounts to suit borrowers, at Bank of Salt Lake.

THE FIREMEN WINNERS.

Gilbert and Clark Were Wrongfully and Illegally Dismissed.

THE NESLEN-TEASDEL SUIT.

CHIEF JUSTICE MERRITT'S ORDER ON MOTION FOR AN INJUNCTION.

Architect M. D. Kern Sent to the Penitentiary For Contempt For Failing to Pay Alimony—The Utah Rights to the Keeley Cure in Litigation—A Defective Sidewalk Causes the City to Be Sued For $5,000 Damages—The Lewis-Hardy Election Contest—Short Orders and Miscellaneous Matters.

The cases of William Gilbert and J. A. Clark against the board of police and fire commissioners came up for adjudication before Chief Justice Merritt. Both plaintiffs were members of the fire department and had been so for many years. On June 19 they were suspended because, as was alleged, they were physically disqualified for the service of the department, in that both of them were above the prescribed age, and in the case of Clark, that he was suffering from rheumatism and that the action of his heart was such that he was unable to perform the prescribed duty and his sight defective.

On Aug. 10 they had a hearing before the board of police and fire commissioners, and the board ordered the chief in suspending them was sustained and they were dismissed.

Thereupon the plaintiffs petitioned the court for a writ of certiorari, directing the board to certify to the court its proceedings so the same might be reviewed by the court.

The petitioners alleged that in coming before the board to contest the action of the board in suspending them without authority and without jurisdiction and in violation of sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61,
